Written Notice of Beneficiary Rights

The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP) –
Written Notice of Beneficiary Rights

Name of Organization: _____

Contact Information for Program Staff (Name and Phone #): _____

Because TEFAP is supported in whole or in part by financial assistance from the Federal Government, we are required to let you know that—

- We may not discriminate against you on the basis of religion or religious belief, a refusal to hold a religious belief, or a refusal to attend or participate in a religious practice.
- We may not require you to attend or participate in any explicitly religious activities that are offered by us, and any participation by you in these activities must be purely voluntary.
- We must separate in time or location any privately funded explicitly religious activities from activities supported with USDA direct assistance.
- If you object to the religious character of our organization, we must make reasonable efforts to identify and refer you to an alternate provider to which you have no objection. We cannot guarantee, however, that in every instance, an alternate provider will be available; and
- You may report violations of these protections (including denials of services or benefits) by an organization to the State agency (<http://www.fns.usda.gov/fdd/food-distribution-contacts>). The State agency will respond to the complaint and report the alleged violations to their respective USDA FNS Regional Office (<http://www.fns.usda.gov/fns-regional-offices>).

We must provide you with this written notice before you enroll in TEFAP or receive services from TEFAP, as required by 7 CFR part 16.

Alternate Service Location(s) or State Agency Contact information can be found at www.oregonfoodbank.org/find-support/additional-assistance or by dialing 2-1-1 for 211info hotline.

IF you pass out meat that was rescued from Grocery Stores and was frozen....Fresh Alliance Meat thawing Instructions

FRESH ALLIANCE PROGRAM

OREGON FOOD BANK NETWORK

The product was frozen on or before the "sell by" date and is safe and wholesome for at least 90 days of the date, if kept frozen.

- Thaw the product in the refrigerator on the bottom shelf in a pan or defrost in the microwave and cook immediately. Do not thaw meat by leaving it out at room temperature!
- Cook the meat thoroughly—there must not be any pink/red color left in the center. (Meat and any leftovers should be cooked to an internal temperature of 165 degrees).
- Leftovers must be refrigerated and eaten within 2 days or frozen immediately for later use.
